Dear Mrs .Luella Bates Washington Jones,

I'm very sorry for what I did. I really regret trying to steal your pocketbook .I don't even know what I was thinking that day. I felt very stupid and I am very sorry.

I want to thank you for not reporting me to the police and instead, forgiving me and taking me to your home. Feeding me ham, lima beans, hot cocoa and the ten cent cake, letting me wash my face and comb my hair. What you told me really helped me understand what I did was wrong, "Shoes come by devilish ways like that will burn your feet."And I would also like to thank you for trusting me even though I had just tried stealing your pocketbook, You made me a better person.

I just want to thank you again for everything you did for me back then. Thank You for giving the money for the shoes I wanted and understanding me about my situation. Thank You very much, I wish I could repay you.

Sincerely,

Roger

P.S: I'm sorry for not thanking you before!
